§ THE CATALOGER'S TOOLCHEST §

Though not a new publication, the List of Uniform Titles for Liturgical Works of the Latin Rites of the Catholic Church, 2nd rev. ed. (1981) continues to be a useful reference work for catalogers working on Catholic liturgical works. The genesis of this list, as is noted in the prefatory pages, goes back to the International Conference on Cataloguing Principles, Paris, 1961, where one of the desiderata was the creation of lists of uniform titles for various types of materials, one being liturgies and religious texts. Out of this interest emerged the Working Group on Uniform Headings for Liturgical Works. Following a period of organization and collaboratively achieved consensus regarding the parameters for such a list, the Working Group published its 1st edition in 1975 and a revised 2nd edition six years later. Among those commenting at the draft stage were the Catholic University of America Library (Rev. Th. Pater) and O.L. Kapsner, OSB, Duluth, Minn.

The stated purpose of the publication is “to provide a list of uniform titles for the official liturgical works of the Latin rites of the Catholic Church from the Council of Trent (1546 - 1563) to the present day.”
