Catholic Library World

Catholic Library World is, and always has been, a unique voice. Since 1930, CLW has published the book/media reviews that are a go-to reference for selecting materials, advising readers, and keeping up on what's current. Scholarly, practical, and informative articles published in CLW address the wide-ranging interests of readers at all levels of Catholic library practice.

As librarians, archivists, educators, volunteers we stay connected through CLW. Reviews are available online in the Members Only section of www.cathla.org.

About CLA

Established in 1921, the Catholic Library Association is an international membership organization, providing its members professional development through educational and networking experiences, publications, scholarships, and other services. The Catholic Library Association coordinates the exchange of ideas, provides a source of inspirational support and guidance in ethical issues related to librarianship, and offers fellowship for those who seek, serve, preserve, and share the word in all its forms.

The Catholic Library Association...

- Encourages the establishment of religion-oriented libraries
- Promotes accepted standards of library service
- Is an educational resource for professional librarianship and fosters research and development in the field
- Supports and provides for the creation, compilation, publication, and use of religious reference tools
- Provides guidance in the selection and use of materials pertinent to Catholicism and professional librarianship
- Develops cooperative relationships with associations having mutual interests
- Holds an annual national convention
- Honors excellence through awards
- Supports interest sections, round tables and local/regional chapters
